This screenshot shows the JustGiving profile page with a focus on the profile picture. The profile picture placeholder, which says 'Edit profile picture', is circled in red. Below the header, there are tabs for 'Fundraising', 'Donations', and 'Cares'. A message states 'Not all teams are in this list. Can't find the one you're looking for? Click here'. Below this, there is a photo of the same couple with a dog, labeled '#StandWithVeraHouse' and 'Why I Am Walking with Vera House'. At the bottom, a fundraising progress bar shows '0%' raised of a '$250.00 target', with a '$0.00 raised' label.

This process is also how you can access your personal and/or team fundraising pages in the future.
